

Privacy Policy

Resolutions is committed to protecting your privacy and maintaining the security of any personal information received from you.

Registered with the information Commissioner's Office, Resolutions strictly adheres to the requirements of the data protection legislation in the United Kingdom.

We do not sell, rent or exchange your personal information with any third party for commercial reasons.

When you complete our enquiry form we ask for your name, email address and telephone number. We keep this information confidential, and use it to contact you by phone or email regarding your specific enquiry.

If you engage in certain activities on this site, such as registering for an event, subscribing to a newsletter or downloading information, we may ask you to complete an online form. From time to time we may use this information to provide you with relevant information that we think would be of particular interest. You will always be given the opportunity to opt out of receiving such direct marketing.

If you wish to check, update, or remove your personal details from our database, please send an email to info@resolutions-for-change.co.uk
